Handout – Minutes of August 11, 2004 Meeting

A motion was made and seconded to approve the minutes from the August 11, 2004 BOT meeting. Motion passed unanimously.

2. CHAIRMAN'S REPORT – George C. Zoley

Chairman Zoley read a proclamation prepared for former Trustee Gerri McPherson on behalf of the FAU Board of Trustees. Ms. McPherson, now vice president of FAU's Treasure Coast Campus, thanked the board for their commendation and dedication to FAU.

3. PRESIDENT'S REPORT – Frank T. Brogan

- Hurricane Frances – President Brogan reported on the impact of Hurricane Frances on each FAU campus. The southern campuses, Ft. Lauderdale, Davie, and Dania Beach, fared best. Port St. Lucie had the most facility damage; two buildings joined by a canopy-like structure were damaged by gale-force winds and sustained roof damage due to the loss of tiles. The Jupiter Campus had lighting issues and experienced minor water

Trustee Warshal asked if there is an analysis of AMP salaries at FAU compared to other universities in the country. President Brogan answered that there are market comparisons, but FAU compares its salaries to those of the other state universities in Florida. Dr. Alperin added that faculty salaries are currently in the 24% percentile. Provost Pritchett added that it would take approxim

the Jupiter Campus.

C. Trustee Tripp commended the football team on a wonderful season start.
